About the PTAC Collaborative

- Founded as the result of the March 2017 Inaugural Summit held at International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP)
- PTAC Inaugural Summit organizers: AdCare Criminal Justice Services, C4 Recovery Solutions, Center for Health and Justice at TASC, Civil Citation Network, George Mason University, International Association of Chiefs of Police, and Western Carolina University
- Named for the collaborative relationship between police, treatment, and community necessary to make police diversion possible

PTAC Collaborative

Mission, Purpose, and Cornerstone

- Mission – To strategically widen community behavioral health and social service options available through law enforcement diversion
- Purpose – To provide national vision, leadership, voice, and action to reframe the relationship between law enforcement, treatment, and community
- Cornerstone – PTAC is agnostic as to which model/brand of pre-arrest diversion is appropriate for a jurisdiction; each community must determine which approach solves its problem, fits the local situation, and can be addressed through current behavioral health capacity

PTAC Collaborative Five Strategic Areas

- Big Idea/Big Tent – the PTAC Collaborative leadership team
- Think Tank – for behavioral health (drug treatment, mental health) and social services to ensure their equal and critical seats at the table
- Informing the Field – for law enforcement and other justice system stakeholders focused on learning about developments in the field
- Research – for partners interested in developing standard metrics for police diversion research and evaluation
- Community – for residents and communities to add their voices and perspectives, and for practitioners already considering or implementing police diversion initiatives

PTAC Collaborative: Next Steps For You
